EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

1. An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with Pavel Pogodin on 04 November 2008.

The application has been amended as follows:

a. In claim 1:

line 12: replace word "operable" with word "used"

line 15: replace word "operable" with word "used"

line 15: insert ", based, at least in part, on the prosodic features,"
after the word "predict"

b. In claim 11:

line 13: replace word "operable" with word "used"

line 16: replace word "operable" with word "used"

line 16: insert ", based, at least in part, on the prosodic features,"
after the word "predict"

c. Cancel claim 21

d. In claim 22:

line 13: replace word "operable" with word "used"

line 16: replace word "operable" with word "used"

line 16: insert ", based, at least in part, on the prosodic features,"
after the word "predict"

Allowable Subject Matter

2. Claims 1, 3-11, 13-20 and 22 are allowed. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

3. Consider claim 1, the prior art of record, Chino, Dahlback, and Shriberg does not specifically teach or suggest the limitations, "wherein the predictive model of discourse functions is used to predict, base, at least in part, on the prosodic features, a likelihood of a first portion of a speech utterance being associated with a command directed to an application and a second portion of the speech utterance being associated with content being provided to the application" when combined with all preceding limitations in the claim. Therefore claim 1 is allowable over the prior art of record.

4. Claims 3-10 are dependent on and further limit allowable claim 1 and are therefore allowable as well.

5. Claim 11 requires similar allowable limitations as claim 1 and is therefore allowed for similar reasons.

6. Claims 13-20 are dependent on and further limit allowable claim 1 and are therefore allowable as well.

7. Claim 21 requires similar allowable limitations as claim 1 and is therefore allowed for similar reasons.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
